STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION SENATE LEGISLATION

Number SR-88S-406

Whereas, the Student Advocate Board has received inquiries regarding discrepancies in the procedures used by the Elections Committee for the 1988 Spring Term Elections, and

Whereas, the guidelines failed to include the presence of a neutral observer (a non-student) during the process of counting and scanning the ballots for the purpose of insuring the validity of the entire election process, and

Whereas, the password to SGA's file in the C.M.S. System was not changed prior to the election, and

Whereas, two candidates on Spring Term Elections Ballot had knowledge of this password, and

Whereas, the election results could have been known prior to their validation by O & B, and

Whereas, violations were reported to the Elections Chair in the absence of the O & B Chair, but not brought up during the validation process of O & B.

Therefore, let it be resolved that O & B be required by Senate to present the written Election Committee Guidelines for Senate approval at the next Senate meeting.

Respectfully Submitted,
